SERVANTS

Sean & Tiffany Priest

Serving bibleless peoples in Asia

It was February 1 and you were reading about us in the church bulletin. There were stressors and challenging decisions as we prepared to leave Canada (Edmonton) for Thailand.

There was concern and threat of more major open conflict breaking out in Achokia as Achok translation team members considered the potential risks of travel and even gathering in their office.

God has once again carried us safely (with a few date changes and of course some over-exhausted jetlag moments) over the oceans back to Thailand.

He has once again seen fit to not yet allow conflict to break out openly in Achokia.

You have joined him (and us!) by your prayers - thank you!

Today quiet moments and the view of sunny palm trees through the window, with a few bird songs filtering in, speak of his love.

Please pray that our rhythms of service and of rest would honour him. May our dependence on our Father be ever deepening.
