SERVANTS

Rich & Joy Sayer

"When I arrived in Sevilla, I felt very alone especially as the living station was very difficult. I experienced an oasis that first Sunday, drinking deeply, having been welcomed with such warmth and obvious expressions of Jesus' love."

"Thank you, Oasis, for your hospitality as we (OM Logos Hope ship crew) were dry-docked. Your hospitality has been a great encouragement."

"I've never experienced a faith community quite like this one. Thank you for making us feel like we are a part of the family."

Receiving countless international students and other short-term stayers at Oasis International Church is a unique characteristic- a non-programmed ministry- amongst the local faith communities. We, Rich and Joy, consider the opportunities to interact with these young people apart from Sunday's a great privilege through both group and one-on-one get-togethers. We are awed as we hear their testimonies of victories over battles, engage with them in the midst of doubts & questions, walk alongside as they discern the coming steps, pray with and for them, encourage, reflect and listen.

So, it can be difficult when the time comes for them to leave, but WOW, how amazing, as the Oasis family, to send them on their way by commissioning through prayer. The Body of Christ is alive and beautiful!"
